

The people of Indiana who do not want to be interrupted during dinner, family time or etc. registered for a Do Not Call List with the Indiana Attorney General. Those who do not mind these calls can still receive them. Why would businesses want to call these people, who have said please do not call. They will not listen to us as individuals but have with the help of our Attorney General. Please, Please let us have our choice. Thank You